Lot 701 Linda Drive, Athelstone

STOP! DO NOT DRIVE BY...THIS IS YOUR FUTURE...

Athelstone's name comes from Athelstone house and mill; build circa 1843 to 1845. John Coulls from Helston in Cornwall bought the mill in 1845, converting it for grape crushing. He named the buildings At Helstone after his hometown. The mill and house remain, listed as State Heritage Places.

The setting is perfect. Situated amongst quality homes and a park across the road, these two allotments priced each at $255,000, are now available so you can start building your family home. They are approximately 10km north-east of the city. Close shops, schools and transport.

Are you ready to be apart of one of Adelaide's most popular suburbs?
